

SPECIAL TO: The Seattle Times, Saturday Real Estate Section

SNOQUALMIE RIDGE CONTACT: Natalie Quick, (206) 343-1543

SCHEDULED PUBLICATION: August 23, 2003

New Snoqualmie Ridge Neighborhood, Silent Creek East, Features Exquisite Architecture

The secret is out for prospective homebuyers about the newest neighborhood in Snoqualmie Ridge, Silent Creek East. With expertly detailed architecture, these homes by CamWest are expected to sell quickly!

Visit Snoqualmie Ridge this weekend and tour a new model home at Silent Creek East and receive a free latte from the Wells Fargo latte cart between 12-2 p.m.

The Silent Creek East neighborhood sits in the heart of the Snoqualmie Ridge planned community, surrounded by beautiful trees and overlooking a small valley. A quiet but active community, Snoqualmie Ridge residents enjoy more than 500 acres of permanent open space, including 20 miles of hiking and biking trails, community parks, a nature preserve and the Pacific Northwest's only Jack Nicklaus-designed Tournament Players Course golf course.

CamWest's CamYes! program allows homebuyers the freedom to customize their new home with upgrades to suit their lifestyle and budget, while exploring a wide range of exterior and interior colors and finishes. Featuring luxurious master suites, timeless hardwood flooring and gourmet kitchens with granite counter tops and stainless steel appliances, homebuyers have the opportunity to create the home of their dreams.

Priced from the low $400,000's and with ample living space up to 3,700 square feet, the three-to-six bedroom homes in Silent Creek East are perfect for families of all sizes. Many of these greenbelt homes also feature spacious basements or covered front porches.

The more than 1,300 residents at Snoqualmie Ridge enjoy living in a community that reflects their active lifestyles. The community integrates its vast open space with single-family homes, condominiums, town homes, apartments, a business park and 10-acre retail plaza. The variety of landscapes and home styles resembles the charm of traditional, established Seattle neighborhoods – with front porches, pedestrian-friendly sidewalks, neighborhood parks and narrow streets.

Snoqualmie Ridge is only a quick 10 minutes from Issaquah, 20 minutes from Bellevue and 30 minutes from downtown Seattle. Residents love being located near mountain biking and hiking, while maintaining an easy commute to work on Interstate 90.

Community events are an important part of the Snoqualmie Ridge lifestyle. Neighbors socialize several times a year with annual activities such as pumpkin carving, holiday parties, a springtime egg hunt and a Fourth of July Kids & Pets Parade.

For more information, visit the Snoqualmie Ridge New Home Information Center, which is located one mile north of Exit 25 off Interstate 90 (Snoqualmie Parkway). Follow signs north to the entry of the community and the New Home Information Center. For more information, please call (425) 396-5200 or visit www.sridge.com.

For Silent Creek East home sales information, please call Dennis Schauls at (206) 310-0197, drop by the model home sales office, or visit www.camwest.com.

###