

FLOOR PLAN OF THE WEEK : RIVERPOINTE

UPPER FLOOR

MAIN FLOOR

Riverpointe is a truly distinctive neighborhood of homes with a convenient north Auburn address, offering a convenient Sounder train commute to Seattle. CamWest is offering several new, spacious home plans here, including the Deschutes plan (shown here), one of several fully furnished models. The first floor welcomes you with a grand feeling of openness and light. As you enter the distinctive foyer, the kitchen with hardwood flooring and tile counters tempts you with light, while ahead, the living areas draw you forward. The pass-through from the kitchen and the loftiness of the living space above gathers the home together in serene, light-filled spaces. The main floor den and powder room convert easily into a fifth bedroom guest suite. The sense of airiness is magnified by a balcony and loft above offering a separate, private living area between the spacious master suite and secondary bedrooms.
