FLOOR PLAN OF THE WEEK : SHAMROCK HEIGHTS

Shamrock Heights is a new community in the Renton Highlands blending the best of eco-friendly and sustainable living with architecturally distinctive Built Green™ 4-Star three to five-bedroom homes. Ten flexible home plans offer a range of lifestyle choices, including the Chelan model home (shown here). The light-filled entry is truly a showstopper with gleaming hardwood floors, high ceilings and elegant transitions into this dramatic four-bedroom home. The dining room, which deftly captures two stories of light and space, features a charming bay window looking out a community that features 9.5 acres of greenbelts and a large “kid tested” private community park. The Chelan kitchen — which offers the latest in Energy Star appliances as well as stunning granite, tile and cabinetry — opens to the great room nook and family room.

PRICE

From $539,950.
